

Application for Breakfast Club (For Parents/Carers Only)

If you require this provision for your child, you must complete and return your application form before your child will be admitted to Breakfast Club. In so doing, you are agreeing to all the Breakfast club rules, which are designed to keep everyone well and safe. Please understand that any failure to follow the rules may result in your child's place being withdrawn.

Breakfast Club Rules

Arrivals: Children can only be admitted to the Club between 08:10 and 08:30. Parents/carers must accompany their child/children to the registration point.

Equipment: Children must not bring in games, books or toys from home.

Routines: Children must follow the breakfast club routines to keep everyone safe

Respect: Children must respect each other and the breakfast club staff

Routines

- Arrive at the junior cloakroom door which opens onto the junior yard.
- Arrive between 08:10 and 08:30.
- Register at the registration point which will be located in the covered porch area outside of the doors
- Children must sanitise hands before entering Breakfast Club in the hall
- After collecting their breakfast, Children must remain seated on your class table until the end of breakfast club.
- Children will be escorted to class by Breakfast Club Staff from 8.50am.

The children will be able to watch Children's TV, suitable videos or colour whilst having their breakfast. They will be encouraged to chat but they will not be permitted to shout or run around. The children are able to go to the toilets one at a time and must sanitise before and then wash their hands after.

Please encourage your child to go to the toilet before leaving home to reduce the numbers of children using the shared toilet in Breakfast Club.
